Nebraska statute 32-614 provides that the Secretary of State places candidates who are "generally advocated or recognized as candidates in national news media" on the Nebraska primary ballot. The Secretary of State's decision typically occurs the second week of February during the election year. If a person does not want his or her name on the Nebraska primary election ballot, he or she shall, by March 10 of the presidential election year, execute and file an affidavit with the Secretary of State.
